Notice to Students and General Public on the Use of Higher Education
Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF)- Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act)
PR/AWARD NUMBER P425E200521

In compliance with the United States Department of Education's requirements to disclose to students and the general public the uses of funds under the CARES Act for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students provided to the Universidad Ana G. Méndez, Carolina Campus, we hereby inform the following:

1. On April 9, 2020, Chancellor Félix Huertas González of UAGM, Carolina Campus signed and returned to the US Department of Education (USDE) a Certification and Agreement (Recipient's Funding Certification and Agreement Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act) stating that the institution would use no less than 50% of the funds received under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students from the campus and locations in Puerto Rico and the United States to cover expenses related to the disruption to the university's operations caused by the Coronavirus (including eligible costs of attendance, as defined by the USDE for food, room and board, materials, technology, medical expenses and childcare).
2. UAGM, Carolina Campus received $7,106,104 from the USDE pursuant to the institutions Certification and Agreement for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students.
3. As of May 21, 2020, UAGM, Carolina Campus has distributed $6,482,850 under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act.
4. UAGM, Carolina Campus has 9,130 students eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 and thus eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act.
5. UAGM, Carolina Campus distributed Emergency Financial Aid Grants to 8,301 students under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act.
6. UAGM, Carolina Campus distributed HEERF funds as the USDE instructed: to all students enrolled during the second semester in 2019-20 that are eligible to federal financial aid Title IV funds (ex.

Pell, FSEOG, TEACH, Federal Direct Loans and Federal College Work Study Program) and in fact were recipients of those funds. Also, to enrolled students during said period that although they did not receive federal financial aid, were deemed eligible, as defined by the USDE, based on a 2019-20 FAFSA with no comments because they comply with all requisites, among them, citizenship, social security, Selective Service (if male student), High School diploma and others, including complying with the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy, are not in default in their loan payments, among others.

As stated in the letter to the institutions of higher education by the Secretary of the USDE, Mrs. Betsy De Vos, UAGM, Carolina Campus distributed the funds to the largest number of students enrolled during the second semester with priority to those with greater need based in the Effective Family Contribution (EFC) reflected in their 2019-20 FAFSA as follows:

- $850 to students with greater need as defined by the Title IV federal regulations, or those with EFC of 0
- $550 to students with an EFC greater than 0

The remaining funds after distribution to enrolled eligible students will be distributed on a case by case basis, after the Financial Aid Director evaluates and approves the requests for additional funds from students that have already received funds but can demonstrate greater need or to other students that are deemed to be qualified to receive CARES Act funds, as defined.

7. UAGM, Carolina students were duly informed about these funds and how they would be distributed in two letters; the first on April 16, 2020 and the second on April 29, 2020. Every student that receives HEERF funds will receive an Award Letter before the payment. Communications were sent to the student's institutional email address. Students were advised to call or email their Financial Aid Office if they had questions concerning this matter.
