

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NUTRITION AND DIETETICS (COORDINATED PROGRAM)

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Undergraduate students of CPND at Universidad Ana G. Méndez, Recinto de Gurabo will be eligible to receive the academic degree after meeting the following requirements and procedures:

1. Students must apply for graduation at the Registrar's Office during the period established in the academic calendar.
2. Completion of the courses required for the degree as set down by the institution.
3. Completion of the number of credits hours required for the degree with a minimum grade point average of 2.50 for the whole degree.
4. To complete the grade point average for graduation, only successfully completed courses which were requirements for the degree will be considered.
5. All students who enter Universidad Ana G. Méndez, Recinto de Gurabo will be subject to the graduation requirements in force during the year they were admitted. Nevertheless, if the curriculum was modified, the student can choose to graduate from the new curriculum, but not by a combination of both.
6. Transfer students must complete at Universidad Ana G. Méndez, Recinto de Gurabo at least the least thirty (30) credit hours of a bachelor's degree and the last twelve (12) credit hours of an associate degree. The student must complete the last twelve (12) credits of its major at Universidad Ana G. Méndez, Recinto de Gurabo.

Once admitted to the Coordinated Program students are expected to complete all program requirements within three years. Under special circumstances, a maximum of five years is allowed to complete the program.

Students must also settle any debts to the institution. No document certifying graduation will be given until documentation has been presented that there are no outstanding debts.

All students applying for readmission will be subject to the requirements for graduation in effect during the year they are readmitted.

Commencement exercises will be held once a year, at the end of the second academic semester. Students who meet graduation requirements at the end of any term or summer session may apply to the Office of the registrar for a certification to that effect.